

Come, Share your Talents

St. Philip's has been a vibrant parish for over 67 years because of the generous, can-do spirit of its people. The talents range from crafty ladies with their beautiful sewing to the skilled grill-masters of the Pancake Breakfast. Our community has been blessed with catechists, choristers, and finance experts. We have skilled floral arrangers, artists and engineers, liturgical ministers and hospitality consultants.

We would like to create a resource for of all the many talents and skills our parishioners have in order to foster greater participation and involvement in our parish community. So please take a moment to fill out the form below. Check the boxes with any skill or talents you would like to share with your fellow parishioners. Please include your name, telephone number, and email address, and drop the form in the special box in the vestibule. Thank you for wanting to share your talents with our parish!
